NUMB. 673

MONDAY, AUGUST 22. 1737.

9^o. 673.

following is an Extract of a very important Letter, dated July 4, from Hamburg, which was published in the Utrecht Gazette.

THE strict Union between the Courts of Russia and Poland shews itself every Day more and more; and we have certain Advices here, that the Czarina has lately given a signal Proof of her Friendship to Poland, by a Declaration she made to the Emperor's

Envoy Extraordinary, the Count d'Ostein, in Effect as follows:

That besides her Alliance with the King of Poland, by virtue whereof she not only has her Interests very much at Heart, but is likewise bound to support and maintain them upon every Occasion, she was in particular concerned very much for the well grounded Right of his Polish Majesty, as Elector of Saxony, to the Succession of the Duchies of Juliers and Berg: That having heard that several Powers were endeavouring for an Accommodation, and a Partition thereof between the King of Russia, and the Elector Palatine, in favour of the Prince of Sultzbach, to the Exclusion of the King of Poland, and the Electoral Family of Saxony; whose Rights to the entire Succession of Juliers, Berg and Cleves, seem to her at least as clear and evident, as the Pretensions of the two other Competitors, she hoped that the Emperor, instead of giving Ear to an Accommodation so prejudicial to the Dignity of Supreme Judge in the Empire, would be inclined of his own Accord to do Justice in this Case to his Polish Majesty; and that he would be as much biassed to it of his own Natural Equity, as from a Grateful Sense of that substantial Service which that Prince lately did to his Imperial Majesty, by so generously furnishing a considerable Body of Saxon Troops, to be employ'd against the Turks. That moreover her Majesty could not help declaring, that she would never abandon the King of Poland's Interests with regard to this Succession; but that, on the contrary, she would support them by the most effectual Methods. 'Tis added, that in Pursuance hereof, her Czarian Majesty has caused very positive Orders to be sent to her Ministers, where-ever the said Affair is treated of, to second those of the King of Poland, in such Representations as the latter shall make in their Master's Behalf, to the End that nothing may be determined upon that Head, to the Prejudice of the Electoral House of Saxony. 'Tis, moreover, the general Notion at Petersburg, that the Powers who are labouring to prevent the Troubles and Confusion that may arise from this Competition, will do the Work but by Halves, if in the Accommodation of this Affair, the King of Poland, in Quality of Elector and Head of the Saxon Family, does not obtain the Justice and Satisfaction which he has a Right to expect.

Aug. 16. 'Nothing is more certain, than that the Marquis de St. Gilles is to go for England, and having already receiv'd his Instructions, tho' he is to wait for farther Orders before he embarks. His Excellency Mr. Walpole continues his private Conferences with our Ministers, as 'tis supposed for concerting the Measures that are convenient to be taken in the present Situation of Affairs. There does not seem to be any Intention at this Place, of acceding to the Plan of the Treaty lately communicated: Besides, the Invitation is so cold, and so far from pressing, that 'tis easy to perceive the Emperor and France do not want the Concurrence of the Maritime Powers to this Treaty.

Be this as it will, Mr. Trevor, in a late Conference with the States Deputies, imparted the Sentiments of the King of England relating to the said Treaty, or Plan of a Treaty, that was communicated to His Majesty; and he declared, that his Majesty was resolved to act in Concert in every Thing with the States-General. M. Hopp, our Minister at London, has likewise Orders to make the same Declaration on the Part of their High Mightinesses, to the Court of England: So that these two Powers seem more and more disposed to cement the Bands of their ancient Union.

As to the War with the Turks, some Politicians are very confident it will soon be at an End; and as if France alone was to be Mistress and Umpire of this War, they pretend that 'tis expressly stipulated, by a secret Convention betwixt that Power and the Emperor, that Asoph on the one Side, and Bosnia on the other, shall be the Prize of the Peace, and the Ne Plus Ultra of the Conquests to be made upon the Turks.

We hear from Amsterdam, that tho' most of the Politicians of this Place write to their Friends there, that Affairs in general are upon a good Footing, and that there is nothing to fear during the Life of Cardinal de Fleury, who is for an universal Peace; yet there has been an unaccountable Sort of Alarm upon the Exchange, owing partly to an Apprehension from the French Troops swarming on the Frontiers of Flanders; which they imagine is with some View that may be pernicious to the Interests of this Republick. This bare Apprehension, whether groundless or not, has however sunk the Publick Stocks, and in the present Situation 'tis not to be expected they can rise very high.

The last Letters from Warsaw say, That the Russians lost 800 Horse, and 3200 Foot, at the Attack of Oczakow, with 2 General Officers, and 168 Subalterns; and that the Grand Vizier was assembling all his Forces, to the Number of 230,000 Men, to attack the Count de Munich, who lay still incamped about half a League from the Place.

NOTICE is hereby given, That the Commissioners for Building a Bridge at Westminster, are to meet in the Jerusalem-Chamber in the Deanery of Westminster, on Wednesday the 24th Instant, by Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon, in Order to consider the Report this Day made by the Committee to whom the several Plans and Proposals for Building the Bridge, were referred; at which Time all Commissioners are desired to attend.

Admiralty Office, August 6, 1737.
HIS Majesty having been graciously pleased by his Warrant under his Royal Sign Manual, dated the 10th of June 1733, to establish certain Rules and Orders, for the better Government of the Charity for the Relief of poor Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy: These are to give Notice to all such Widows as aforesaid, whose Husbands died on or since the 30th of August 1732, that Copies of the said Rules and Orders are lodged with the Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy at Chatham, Portsmouth and Plymouth, as also with the Clerks of the Cheque at Deptford, and Woolwich, and the Naval Officers at Harwich, Deal and Kinsale, where they may be informed of all Particulars, which entitle such Widows to the Benefit of the said Charity, and receive the proper Certificates for that Purpose: But such Widows, as live at too great a Distance from the Places above-mentioned, may apply by Letter to Thomas Corbett, Esq; at the Admiralty Office, who will send them all necessary Information. And the Court of Assistants for managing the said Charity, do hereby give Notice, that they will meet at the Admiralty Office on Tuesday the 13th of September, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, to receive the Claims of such Widows, as shall be qualified according to the said Rules and Orders.

Whereas many Inconveniencies have attended the former manner of supplying the Kingdoms of England and Ireland with Pyrmont Water; particularly, the Water frequently lay long in the Merchants Hands at Bremen before transported to England, and afterwards yet longer in the Possession of the Sellers in London before sold: so that oftentimes, before it came to the Drinkers Hands, it would be a Year old, or upwards. Moreover I have detected Persons filling Bottles (marked with a Star, like those in which I used to fill the Pyrmont Waters) at a common Spring, in order to transport and impose them upon the Publick, for the true Waters of Pyrmont. And further, to my certain Knowledge, great Quantities of false Waters were purposely filled in this Country, and imposed last Year on the Publick designedly, by some Traders in England, in order to prejudice this Fountain, and to the Detriment and Disappointment of the Drinkers. And on the other hand, being well assured of the Integrity of Mr. EYRE, sworn Purveyor of all Mineral Waters to their Britannick Majesties, and being an Eye-Witness of the Improvements he has made in filling these Waters, whereby they are now transported in greater Perfection: Therefore I do appoint him, jointly with my Brother JOHN-HENRY REISENER, to transport into England and Ireland the said Waters, which shall be sent them from time to time, and be sold by them only, or by such as they shall appoint, by which Method the Dominions of his Britannick Majesty will be constantly supplied with FRESH PYRMONT WATER, and the foregoing Inconveniencies be in some measure prevented: And for a further Caution, all the Bottles filled with the said Water will have the Arms of his Highness the Prince of Waldeck impressed on the Side, agreeable to a Patent granted them by his Highness for that Purpose; and all such as are not thus marked, agreeable to the above Impression, are not to be depended on to be the true Waters of Pyrmont.

Pyrmont, Mar. 30. CHRISTIAN-ULRICH REISENER, Master of the Pyrmont Wells.

THESE are to certify, That Messrs JOHN-HENRY REISENER and HENRY EYRE have caused to be filled, in their Presence, 34,113 Bottles of Pyrmont Water, which Water was filled in a good Season, and when it was in its utmost Perfection, and was corked, wired down, and secured by an excellent Composition, after an improved Method.

Pyrmont, May 26. D. JOHN PHILIP SEIP, Counsellor and Physician to his Highness the Prince of Waldeck at Pyrmont.

These WATERS are sold at Mr. EYRE's Mineral Water-Warehouse, near Temple-Bar. Where also are constantly sold the following Mineral Waters, viz.

SPA,	BORNE,	BATH,	SCAR-
SELTERS,	HOLT,	BRISTOL,	BORO'

N.B. Mr. EYRE employs his whole Time in attending and filling the several Waters, particularly those of Pyrmont and Spaw.
